CONDITION OF CROPS.

The Weather Bureau's Weekly Report.

AN ENCOURAGING OUTLOOK.

The Week Has Been Generally Favorable For Fall Plowing and Seeding, and This Work, Which Has Been Much Retarded by Previous Drouth Conditions, Is Being Rapidly Caught Up and Has Been Completed In Some Sections.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The weekly crop report of the weather bureau says: Cotton is opening rapidly and picking has continued under generally favorable conditions, although pickings were small in Texas and damaged by rains during the latter of the week. Pasture has continued in good condition in New England, the middle Atlantic states, and has greatly improved in the Ohio valley.

Corn cutting, where not completed, is being rapidly pushed, and the crop is now regarded as practically secured.

Tobacco cutting is also being rapidly pushed in Maryland, Virginia, Tennessee and Kentucky. In Pennsylvania much tobacco still remains in the field.

The week has been generally favorable for fall plowing and seeding, and this work which has been much retarded by previous drouth conditions, is being rapidly caught up and has been completed in some sections. In Nebraska, however, the drouth remains unbroken, and fall plowing and seeding has been suspended, and in Wisconsin, while beneficial rains have fallen, the ground is still too dry for seeding.

Maryland—Good weather for plowing, corn cutting and wheat seeding. Fodder and tobacco saving now in progress; pastures and late tobacco greatly improved; peaches and apples excellent in western sections; large quantities of tomatoes being picked in eastern portion.

North Carolina—Very favorable conditions; farmers busy picking cotton, gathering peas, curing hay and fodder, seeding oats, preparing land for wheat, harvesting rice, digging peanuts, etc.

South Carolina—Cotton opened rapidly and picking progressing with full force; crop will be very short; largest crop of best pea vine, hay and crabgrass ever gathered; potatoes good.

Georgia—Cotton opening so rapidly that picking hardly keeps up with it; crop has gathered in south portions; rain needed for cane and potatoes, no fall grain sown, as it is too dry.

Florida—Splendid weather for making hay, pulling corn and picking cotton, but unfavorable for the truck farming and gardens.

Alabama—Cotton has improved much; it is opening rapidly and picking is general; cane, potatoes and corn are doing well.

Mississippi—Cotton opened rapidly and much picking has been done; continued complaints of worms; good crop of hay saved; potatoes, peas, turnips and fall gardens will improve with moisture, but present cool, rainy spell will injure cotton.

Louisiana—Cotton picking progressing favorably and will be practically completed by Nov. 1; crop about two-thirds open; corn and hay harvesting, orange picking, and fall planting of cane continues; cane prospects excellent, some will be ripe in October.

Texas—Cotton picking progressed rapidly with favorable weather until Monday, when rain checked work; rains have improved grains and put ground in condition for fall plowing in northwest portion of state, and have improved prospects for top crop of cotton where the plant is not dead.

Arkansas—The condition of cotton has slightly fallen, it is opening rapidly and picking is general; late rains very beneficial to vegetables and will permit plowing and seeding.

Tennessee—Weather has been favorable for and in saving tobacco and fodder; tobacco in northeast portion is being cut and is curing rapidly; wheat seeding commenced in some localities and some winter oats being sown, cotton injured by dirt on open bolls.

Kentucky—Corn and tobacco cutting and fallowing progressing; general improvement in crops.

Missouri—Abundant sunshine and good to heavy showers in nearly all counties; pastures and meadows revived; plowing and seeding progressing slowly.

Illinois—Rains have put ground in good condition for fall seeding and have revived pastures and meadows; corn practically beyond danger of frost; cutting is progressing for the winter wheat which will be planted soon.

Indiana—Corn and wheat seeding are finished in most localities; corn is safe from frost; husking continues; clover yielding much improved.

West Virginia—Corn cutting in full blast, ripened unevenly in many localities; sown grain and wheat needing rain; stock doing well; grapes reported full crop.

Ohio—Rains have improved conditions of pastures; advanced seeding and plowing and given entirely sown wheat a start; corn cutting nearly completed; buckwheat a poor crop; millet in good condition; clover threshing completed.

WHEELS WHIRLING ONCE MORE.
Good Tidings From Connecticut Factories.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., Sept. 27.—The effects of increased business are felt in this part of the state in the starting up of mills that have been running on half time and with only half the usual number of hands employed. In many cases to all the old hands who have remained in the city has been given work. There is a feeling of confidence among the merchants, and they are making preparations for a good fall and winter.

Reports from towns up the Naugatuck valley indicate that the same condition of affairs prevails there. From this city to Winsted, in Litchfield county, a distance of about 50 miles, there are a dozen or more towns, all of which are hives of industry.

Tried to Kill the General Manager.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 27.—John O'Brien, a nonunion iron worker who was discharged from the Lockhart iron and steel works, when the strike was declared off and the old men taken back, procured a bulldog revolver and went to the works to kill General Manager George Tatlin. He was disarmed by two deputy sheriffs who were still on duty and lodged in jail charged with carrying concealed weapons. O'Brien was angry because he had been dislodged by a stranger.

ALMOST BURIED ALIVE.

The Awful Experience of Mrs. R. W. Phillips of Salem, Mass.

SALEM, Sept. 27.—Mrs. R. W. Phillips knows how it feels to be laid out for burial and hear the mourning of friends and relatives over her supposed death. This terrible experience was recently hers, and she is now recovering from the nervous shock that followed her restoration to the world. It was her frantic efforts to assure her husband's grief that caused the faintest fluttering of her heart and saved her from the terrible fate of being cremated alive.

She had been sick with peritonitis. For many days all hope of recovery was abandoned by friends and physicians. She had severe sinking spells, and in one of these spells she became powerless to speak or move. She could hear all that was said and knew everything that was going on at her bedside. She heard them pronounce her dead, felt them close her eyes, felt her husband's arms about her and heard his heart-broken sobs, still she had no power to prevent any of these manifestations. She says the thought came to her during these moments:

"Am I dead? Can it be possible that this is death? Am I to hear my husband's grief and pass away from him with no power to prevent it? No, it can not be; God would never be so cruel."

She made a frantic effort to speak, and her husband discovered some signs of life, flutter of the heart, and immediately began to pour strong alcohol upon her and rub her vigorously. In a short time animation was restored. She believes if nothing had been done for her that she might have continued in that state until she was buried. She had no pain, suffering nothing while in that condition.

MUST FURNISH GAS.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—The Indiana supreme court has decided in the case of the Portland Natural Gas and Oil company against W. W. Keen of Jay county, that gas companies must furnish gas to patrons who have property in the streets traversed by the gas mains. The opinion was by Judge Coffey. It held that where the occupants or owners of property make the necessary arrangements for the gas, it is the duty of the company to furnish the fuel. When the company refuse, it can be compelled by mandamus to furnish gas.

HUNTING A DESPERADO.

BUENA VISTA, O., Sept. 27.—Posses of armed men have been hunting for the desperado, Benedict, who shot Furnier, day and night, but up to this time have not captured him. Benedict's clothes are at his home with his wife. An armed posse has carefully secreted itself near the dwelling and guarded it carefully. Yesterday Constable Rose of Rome decided to search the Benedict house and outbuildings, when Benedict's mother ran him off with an ax. The wounded man, Furnier, is still living, and may recover.

A Embezzler Located.

LIMA, O., Sept. 27.—E. L. Gunn, the earthenware church leader who departed from Lima with thousands of dollars of other people's money, has been located. A former Limaite, writing from a western city, the name of which is withheld for obvious reasons, says he can put his hands on Gunn in 24 hours and inquire if there is a reward for his capture. The matter has been placed in the hands of the authorities and the Connecticut school fund of Hartford, the heaviest loser, has been wired.

Elephant on a Rampage.

PERU, Ind., Sept. 27.—Diamond, the 10-ton elephant of Wallace & Company's circus, in winter quarters near this city, yesterday broke loose from his chains, butted down the heavy doors of the building, broke the heavy gates of the yard and forced the Mississinewa river. He crashed through everything in his way, wire and other fences proving no obstacle. Farmers cutting corn along his line of march fled for their lives and pandemonium reigned for several hours. Patsey Forepaugh, his keeper, with the assistance of 20 men, finally managed to subdue the brute after much damage was done, and he was returned to his quarters.

BIG FOUR BOILERMAKERS' STRIKE.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—The striking boilermakers on the Big Four say that their places have not been filled, and will not be nonunion men are scarce, and members of the brotherhood will not seek the vacant places. The shops, they say, are full of dead engines, with no one to repair them, and their number is increasing daily. The Moorefield yards are crowded with cars, and it is difficult to keep the main line open. The 7 o'clock passenger train had to back into a Haughville switch this morning so that a freight train might pass on the main line, so that the express could proceed on its way westward.

BOOKKEEPER COMMITS SUICIDE.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—Charles B. Augustus, a bookkeeper 29 years old, whose mother lives in Memphis, and is quite well-to-do, committed suicide by shooting this morning at his boarding house, 8910 Elston avenue, this city. Despondency, due to his inability to secure employment was the motive for the act.

BRAHMANS AND MOHAMMEDANS.

Their Religious Differences May Cause Further Riots in India.

CALCUTTA, Sept. 27.—The "cow question" which precipitated the recent riots in Bombay came near starting a similar riot here Monday. It was only the exercise of great good judgment on the part of the authorities that serious trouble was averted. The Hindus have been worked up to excited feelings on the subject of killing cows by means of inflammatory literature on the subject that has been spread broadcast through the country by the leaders of the cow protection movement. The Hindus, who believe All Life Sacred, and that of the cow peculiarly so, have been deeply offended at the action of the Mohammedans, to whom a cow is an animal to yield milk, and later beef in butchering cows for food purposes.

MONDAY while some Mohammedans were driving a cow to a butcher's to be slaughtered, an excited crowd of Hindus seized the animal and refused to let it be driven to slaughter. The crowd rapidly increased in numbers and the situation was becoming critical, when a government official came along and made inquiries as to the cause of the trouble. He was at once surrounded by a gesticulating crowd of Hindus and Mohammedans, everyone of whom was READY ON THE INSTANT FOR A BLOODY FIGHT.

The official finally prevailed upon the crowd to listen to him and then suggested that the Hindus should save the life of the cow by buying it. This struck the poor natives as a good idea and the price of the cow demanded by the Mohammedans was soon raised and the animal was led off in triumph by its new owners.

The Pioneer of Allahabad, referring to the inflammatory literature emanating from and the circulated broadcast by the leaders of says these writings have already had a marked effect on the ignorant Hindus in Bengal, Oude, the northwestern provinces and Bombay. They have not apparently had much currency in Punjab or Rajputana, but the propaganda is of such a character that these provinces are likely to become the scene of operations in the sacred cause of Hinduism. Unless every precaution is taken a sudden convulsion, in comparison with the riots at Bombay, Rangoon and Azimgurh, serious as they were, would sink into insignificance, is to be apprehended. Immediate action, adds The Pioneer is required while time yet remains to check the growing danger.

BANK DEPOSIT TAX.

Congressman Bryan Explains a Bill He Recently Introduced.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—Representative Bryan of Nebraska, in explanation of his bill to tax bank deposits at the rate of one-quarter of 1 per cent for the creation of a fund to pay depositors in failed national banks, says:

"The bill has many advantages, and so far my attention has not been called to any disadvantages. It will be a benefit to depositors in giving them security for deposits; it will bring to national banks an advantage which will far more than balance the small tax, because the greater security will bring to the banks greater deposits. Then the tax is suspended when the special fund reaches $10,000,000, and afterward the tax will be insignificant."

"It benefits the community because when depositors are secure money will not be hoarded. Thus banks will not be crippled and the worst features of panics will be avoided. It will compel states to protect depositors in state banks in the same way or state banks will get no deposits. By paying depositors at once money is put in circulation and embarrassment to the business community prevented. The issue of greenbacks equal to the fund prevents contraction of currency."

NOTED INDIANANS.

They Will Participate in the Exercises of Indiana Day at the World's Fair.

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—Governor Claude Matthews and the members of his staff, accompanied by ex-President Benjamin Harrison, James Whitcomb Riley and a number of Indiana dignitaries arrived in the city late yesterday afternoon and will participate in the celebration of the Hoosier state day exercises.

The party left Indianapolis early in the morning over the Big Four road and left the train at the Sixteenth street entrance to the world's fair grounds. There it was met by the state commissioners, who escorted the distinguished visitors to the Hotel Ingram. The hotel will be the headquarters of the party but most of the time the Indians will be inside of the world's fair grounds.

LAUNDRY WORKERS ORGANIZED.

INDIANAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—The laundry workers' convention, in session here, formed an international organization, with Lawrence J. Clinton of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., as president, Ida M. Keys of Indianapolis as secretary and treasurer. A committee on laws was appointed, which will draft a constitution to be adopted at a later session. There is not a large attendance of delegates as the industry is not well organized and the distance made it impossible for some of the delegates to attend.

BOOKKEEPER COMMITS SUICIDE.

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 27.—Charles B. Augustus, a bookkeeper 29 years old, whose mother lives in Memphis, and is quite well-to-do, committed suicide by shooting this morning at his boarding house, 8910 Elston avenue, this city. Despondency, due to his inability to secure employment was the motive for the act.

A STRIKE PROBABLE.

The Louisville and Nashville May Be Tied Up.

SWITCHMEN ALREADY OUT.

Not a Freight Train Moving and Passenger Trains Are Being Handled by Officials of the Road—A Secret Conference of the Other Employes.

LOUISVILLE, Sept. 27.—The labor situation on the Louisville and Nashville railroad is more serious now than it has been at any time since the strike of the shopmen against the reduction of 10 per cent in their wages. All the switchmen employed in the local yards of the road struck yesterday afternoon.

The affiliated orders of conductors, engineers, firemen, brakemen and switchmen held an animated union meeting at the Falls City hall last night, being in session from early in the evening until 1 o'clock this morning considering the question of a general strike.

All the men present were pledged to secrecy, but it is learned that no decisive action was taken. Resolutions expressing sympathy with the striking shopmen were passed and inflammatory speeches advocating a general strike were made. Committees were appointed to act for each order represented in case of any emergency. It is conceded that the employees have made every preparation for a general strike if it be ordered.

The strike of the switchmen was claimed to be on account of a new rule requiring them to carry passes to be submitted to the deputy sheriffs guarding the shops and grounds before they could enter. It is generally believed, however, to have been caused by sympathy with the striking shopmen. Not one of the 35 switchmen employed in the yards is at work. Not a freight train has gone out. The passenger trains have been handled by the yardmaster and other officers of the road.

The situation of the shops remains unchanged. Manager Metcalfe claims that he has in his employ 75 mechanics. One of the officers of the force of deputy sheriffs states that by actual count there are 52 men at work, including about 30 negro laborers. The strikers insist that there are not to exceed 10 in the shops besides 15 or 20 laborers, nearly all of whom are colored. The strikers have been active in endeavoring to prevent new men being introduced into the shops.

OF 30 OR 40 BROUGHT FROM CHICAGO, ONE WENT TO WORK. The strikers are on the alert watching for a train load of men said to be coming from the east. The railroad company has erected a high board fence around its shops and yards and has a force of 160 guards sworn in as deputies. No violence has been attempted by the strikers.

ARGENTINE WAR NEWS.

The Government Troops Recapture a City From the Rebels.

BUENOS AIRES, Sept. 27.—General A. Pellegrini at the head of the government troops recaptured the city of Tucuman. The insurgent forces occupying the city made only feeble resistance. After an hour's fighting they fled. Pellegrini, his staff and 1,500 infantry at once marched to the building where the battle junta was sitting. All the members were taken prisoners and locked up under a strong military guard.

A smart fight took place off the coast yesterday between the government squadron and the rest of the boats which have joined the rebels. The torpedo boats made the attack. The whole government fleet bore down on them, silenced and boarded them and brought back all their crews as prisoners. Several officers on both sides were killed.

BISMARCK'S ILLNESS DANGEROUS.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—A dispatch from Kissengen to the Central News says that Prince Bismarck's illness is dangerous. His family does not approve of the suggestion that has been made that Emperor William visit him at Kissengen as they fear that the slightest increase of excitement might prove fatal. The dispatch adds that if the prince's doctors gave their assent, Emperor William, it is said, will visit Prince Bismarck as soon as the latter is removed to Frederichruhe. It appears now that his return to this home at present is impossible.

Baldy Embarrassed.

LEXINGTON, Ky., Sept. 27.—The Lexington Waterworks company is financially embarrassed, and will probably have to go into the hands of a receiver. The city advanced it $1,500 last night, but this will only lend temporary relief. A large reservoir is in course of construction, and the contractors, who are northern and eastern parties, are also in need of money. The officers of the company acknowledge their embarrassment, but refuse to talk.

Requisition Honored.

COLUMBUS, O., Sept. 27.—A requisition from the governor of New York was honored by Governor McKinley for Adam Garlock. He is wanted in Syracuse to answer the charge of larceny in the second degree. Garlock was a traveling man for John Link, a wholesale liquor man, and absconded with $2,000. He offered to return without a requisition, but the laws of New York makes it a felony for officers to return prisoners without due form.

We met the Colonel of the Thirteenth Virginia Regiment, who knew some of our friends, and who had been shot three times, once through the head; he showed us the hole where the ball had gone in and come out, and said some of the brain had come out with it. The surgeons had pronounced his case hopeless when they came to him in the hospital, yet an hour after they had attended him he was up and traveled nineteen miles that day with his command. The Colonel spoke very highly of the Amblers, and said that any one with an ounce of the Ambler or Barbour blood in them—the families having intermarried—could not help being everything that a man should be.

THE REIGART CASE.

Syllabus of the Decision of the Court of Appeals Affirming the Judgment.

Mention was recently made that the Court of Appeals had affirmed the judgment in the case of Mrs. T. J. Reigart against the American Accident Company, taken up from this city. Judge Pryor in his decision says:

"First—A policy of insurance must be liberally construed in favor of the insured, and where the words are without violence susceptible of two interpretations, that which will cover the loss must in preference be adopted."

"Second—The death of a person caused by a piece of beefsteak passing into the windpipe in eating is a death received through "external, violent and accidental means" within the meaning of an accident insurance policy restricting the right of recovery to cases of death from such means."

"Third—In an action upon an accident insurance policy the defendant having attempted to deny that death was caused by the accident as alleged in petition the burden was on the plaintiff, and she was entitled to the concluding argument to the jury, and the defendant will not be allowed to say that its denial was bad and that as the only defense was that the insured was intoxicated, it was entitled to the burden of proof."

Thomas H. Hines, Whittaker & Robertson for appellant, Cochran & Sons, John F. Lacy, Edward W. Hines for appellee.

Reigart was a pension agent and choked to death on a piece of beefsteak while located in this city. The judgment his widow obtained against the company was for $5,000.

The Time to Visit the World's Fair.

Those who live in Chicago claim that October is the most delightful month of the year, and it is thought that it will be the big month of the World's Fair. There will be at least one more good chance for visiting the fair, as the C. and O. has announced that a special train will start from Ronceverte, W. Va., at 8 a. m. October 2nd, and run through to Chicago. It will be composed of elegant vestibuled coaches and sleepers and will closely follow the time of F. F. V. Limited, No 3. The train will be personally conducted, which is a big card in itself, but the rates will be so low that it is anticipated that the October 2nd, special will be the banner one of the World's Fair.

The C. and O. ticket agent will give full information regarding rates and train accommodations. He will also secure board in Chicago at from 50 cents up on the European plan in perfectly reliable quarters conveniently located.

Crap-Shooters Shot and Slashed.

Twenty colored crap-shooters engaged in a bloody scrimmage at Millersburg Sunday night. Some fifty shots were fired, numerous razors gleamed and slashed and brickbats fell in showers. When the smoke had cleared away Thomas Higgins had shot "Hollyhock" Williams in the left leg and shoulder; "Hollyhock" had shot Higgins in the right leg; George Foggy had mashed Bill Nichols' skull with a rock, and Nichols had cut Foggy's throat with a razor. Nichols will die, so the doctors say, and Higgins will have to submit to having his leg amputated. Several white men were in the place at the time, but escaped without injury.

Guns! Guns! Guns!

CONGRESS.

Proceedings of Both the Senate and House.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The Populist Senator from Kansas met somewhat of a defeat yesterday by having a resolution of his laid on the table by a vote of 27 to 19. It was a call on the treasury department for information as to the anticipation of interest on United States bonds since 1861, information which Mr. Sherman said the senator could obtain for himself in any public library.

Mr. Peffer intimated that the treasury department was trying to withhold information to which the people were entitled, but Mr. Sherman's view of the case was adopted by the senate.

After the repeal bill was taken up Mr. Perkins (Rep., Cal.) made a speech against it in which he declared himself a sincere believer in United States coinage of grades silver. It was Mr. Perkins' first speech in the senate, except a eulogy on his predecessor, Mr. Sanford, and the impression made by it was very favorable to the senator.

The remainder of the day's session was occupied by Mr. Stewart in a continuation of his remarks begun the previous day. The session was closed with a personal explanation by Mr. Morgan (Dem., Ala.) denying the imputation of an unfriendliness between the president and himself, a short speech by Mr. Voorhees (Dem., Ind.), eulogistic of the president and explanatory of which the Democratic side of the chamber had not answered Mr. Stewart's attacks during his two days speech.

The senate adjourned at 6 p.m.

In the House.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—The debate upon the federal election repeal bill was not as exciting as was expected. Mr. Tucker of Virginia, who in Mr. Fitch's absence is in charge of the measure, delivered a carefully prepared and well considered speech upon the question, devoting himself principally to the constitutional points involved, although he took occasion to make some reference to John I. Davenport and his methods. Mr. Brosius of Pennsylvania replied, defending the elections laws. Without transacting further business the house at 4:40 adjourned.
